OUTDOOR KITCHENS

Unlimited possibilities

Foras Outdoor Kitchens is a brand of Stükerjürgen Composites + Wood, a leading manufacturer of fitted outdoor furniture for yachts.

With our Foras brand, we now offer al fresco cooking enthusiasts unlimited possibilities for creating their unique outdoor kitchen. Every aspect of your kitchen can be customised to suit your personal style.

Why choose a Foras outdoor kitchen?

Materials in yacht quality

We use outdoor materials in marine grade quality that can withstand even the harshest weather conditions.

Perfectly adapted to you

The sizes, colours and features of our outdoor kitchens can be individually customised to your wishes.

Free appliance configuration

We can integrate your favourite appliances of any type and brand into your individual kitchen - even your own.

Quality made in Germany

Our outdoor kitchens are crafted in Germany to the highest standards of quality and workmanship.

Allround service

We offer you a hassle-free service, from the initial consultation to the installation of your kitchen on site.

Decades of experience in yacht furnishings

The origins of our company lie in the furnishing of yacht outdoor areas. For many decades, we have been providing fitted furniture for yachts, including seating, tables and bars. All of our products are crafted from the finest materials, such as teak wood and composite materials.

Experts in premium outdoor furniture

Drawing on our expertise in yacht furnishings, we now offer premium kitchens for your garden or patio. Foras outdoor kitchens are made in Germany from marine grade materials. They feature the highest level of workmanship and come with unlimited customisation options.

First class customer service

Our in-house team provides you with all services for your new kitchen from a single source, including consultation, measurement, planning, production and installation.
